The Heroines – Complete Catalog

FMR -003

Released 1/12/2015

Ulla Eriksen, Susan Lanting, and Frédérique Olthuis started the Heroines in Amsterdam in 2006 and were active through 2011. According to Lanting, the band “did everything a band does except making music.” Throughout their career they made appearances on talk shows and in advertisements and numerous promotional photo shoots, all the while staying committed to their goal of not playing or recording music. As such, there exists no musical output for us to preserve or disseminate.
